the seminar

A full-day seminar designed for the construction professional — owner, developer, construction manager, contractor, specialty subcontractor, design professional, construction attorney — to educate, interact and expand on present-day construction law issues that are relevant to the construction industry in Ohio.

Sessions will be held in Columbus on November 15, 2010 and in Cleveland on November 16, 2010. Presented by attorneys from Thompson Hine's Construction Law Group (ranked by Chambers USA as the #1 firm in Ohio on construction law) and other industry experts, this interactive and informative seminar will examine issues dealing with:

- Project delivery methods
- Ohio construction reform
- Legal rules in aid of contract interpretation
- Competitive bidding and bid protest law
- Changes and claims
- Delay, acceleration and disruption claims
- Differing site conditions claims
- Pricing of claims
- Liens and surety bond issues
- Subcontracting
- Construction defects and warranty law
- Negligence and the economic loss doctrine in Ohio
- Ohio's "Fairness in Contracting" statutes
- Prompt Pay
- Insurance issues that affect and impact the construction industry
- The impact and reach of the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 (ARRA)
- Recent Ohio Prevailing Wage developments
- Other issues affecting and impacting the private and public construction industries
